

I find that the implementation of the PLC system would not be in the best interest of ALL radio spectrum users on the grounds that there is inadequate protection from radio frequency interference to all users of a broad range of radio frequencies.